WHY DO WE DO THAT?

- CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Q: What do Catholics believe about the end of the world ?

A: We hear the phrase “the end of the world” casually today. Often in film or media, it means the end of civil society or the threat of human annihilation by natural disasters. For the Christian, our perspective is distinctly Christ-centered. Numerous times through the Gospel, Jesus notes that he will come again, even after he has ascended into heaven. The Church typically refers to this as the Second Coming of Jesus or the Latin “Parousia,” meaning “presence” or “arrival.”

We believe that Christ will come again, and at his Second Coming, temporal time will end. Human history will end, at least as we know it. However, it doesn't mean that creation will be destroyed. The book of Revelation speaks of a renewal, indeed a “new heaven and a new earth” (Rev 21:1). Christ will come again in glory. Our souls will be reunited with our bodies. While our lives were judged individually at our deaths, which we call the particular judgment, something new will happen here. Theologians call it the general judgment or the last judgment, in which our deeds and the effects — for good or ill — will be known to all. For the early Christians, this second coming was hoped for! They knew it was the completion of God's work of redemption for the human race. We, too, should pray with them, “Come Lord Jesus!”

Please be generous in this week's special collection, which supports the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people live in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for people across the country who struggle. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection

REFLECTIONS – Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time - It is tempting to focus on the affairs of others rather than to have to deal with our own problems. It may even provide us some comfort to think that we could be in worse straights. Being a busybody is not what we are called to as disciples. Our attention should be on the work at hand and caring for our families and neighbors. When we think of others, it should not be with the aim of finding fault but of finding needs that we may help them. What are you “busy” about?

“Teach me your ways, O Lord; and lead me on a level path.” - Psalm 27:11

Our Lady's Altar Society is having their semi-annual "Sweet Sale & Raffle" the weekend of November 23rd and 24th after all Masses. Raffle tickets will also be sold after all Masses on November 16th and 17th. OLAS needs volunteers to bake sweets for the "Sweet Sale" on November 23rd and 24th. Please bring donated "sweets" to the Church at the Mass you are attending for the weekend. If you have any questions, please contact Margo LeBlanc at 380-3319.

**NOTE: Due to the bulletin deadline, we will report the Sunday collections for November 10th in next weekend's bulletin. Thank you for your generosity.

SANCTUARY LIGHT:

*In Memory of:
Roy & Mitchell Seneca*

Thanksgiving Day is Coming!

Thanksgiving will be here before you know it, and you will soon be saying, "Pass me the mashed potatoes, please." This November holiday has its roots in American history and has grown into a day where we remember all the things for which we are thankful: country, family, friends, health, etc. Unfortunately, we can find ourselves so caught up with travel plans and buying the perfect turkey or ham that we let the day pass us by, and all we can focus on is how much we ate and who won the day's football games. That's why it is time NOW to begin reflecting daily of all things, great and small, that we are thankful for in life.

Gratitude is a key characteristic of a good Everyday Steward, but it does not develop in us without effort. In the coming days, we can contemplate all those things God has given us. If it helps, we can create a written list and bring it with us to the Thanksgiving dinner table. The point is that too often we take so many gifts for granted, and unless we pause and purposely reflect, we miss the chance to give thanks. A healthy and hearty heart filled with gratitude can make the highs in life that much higher and the lows easier to bear. Increased gratitude will also bring us closer to the source of all those good gifts, our God.

So, what will Thanksgiving be like for you this year? You have some time to make it something more than it has been in the past. The choice is yours.

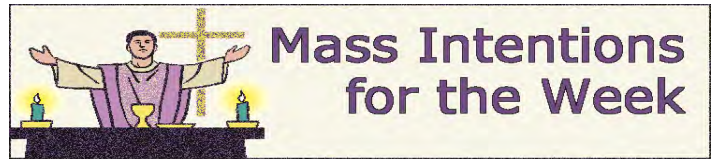

— Tracy Earl Welliver

TODAY'S READINGS

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 17, 2019

Reading I: Malachi 3:19-20a

- These closing remarks from the book of the prophet Malachi speak of the approaching end-times and God's judgment upon the world. Malachi teaches us that those who "fear" God's name will be saved. How do you show your fear of the Lord?

Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

- Paul presents himself, Silvanus, and Timothy as "models" of the faith for the Thessalonians. Who from our faith community do you regard as a model to emulate?

Gospel: Lk 21:5-19

- Jesus speaks about the end-times in today's Gospel: the destruction of the Temple, false messiahs, and coming persecution. Jesus emphasizes the importance of perseverance. What do you see as key to persevering in the faith?

2020 Mass Intentions:

The Mass Intention Book for the 2020 year is now open for parishioners to schedule Masses. Please allow 10 business days if possible, before the requested Mass. Come by the church office to schedule Masses. Call the church office with any questions, 364-8360.
